

Jenny Feinmann's Cambodian Visit

Above: in a village in Rattanakri in the rural east of Cambodia – a typical village house and children being transported to testing centres by motorbike.

Left: Jenny with the team of

Clockwise from bottom left:

Jenny and husband Peter about to go for a ride on the Bamboo train

Jenny in a Tuk Tuk, the main form of public transport in Phnom Penh

Relaxing in the guest house amongst the Cashew nut trees